

WHAT'S NEW IN THE NEIGHBOURHOOD

Alpine's backyard is bustling with trendy new spots to enjoy in all four seasons.

Discover the latest and greatest places to explore in the area:

BAR GONDOLA

Nestled in the heart of downtown Collingwood, this après-ski-inspired hotspot brings a touch of Blue Mountain flair to Hurontario Street. With its cozy, mountain lodge vibe and signature shotski, it's the perfect place to unwind after a day on the slopes or simply enjoy a night out with friends. Don't miss out on the lively atmosphere and creative cocktails!

THE BUNKER ARCADE

Located in Blue Mountain Village, this latest venture from the founders of AXED Blue Mountain blends nostalgic arcade classics with modern family fun. Whether you're battling it out on Pac-Man or testing your skills on the newest games, The Bunker is sure to be a hit for all ages.

CRANKY BEAR CAFÉ

Tucked beneath Smitty's Bike Shop in downtown Thornbury, Cranky Bear Café is your go-to for a morning pick-me-up or a midday breather. Serving up organic and fair-trade Crank Coffee, this relaxed, cozy setting is perfect for unwinding with a cup of joe and a healthy snack. Don't miss their secret menu offerings, including the rich strawberry espresso, adding a delightful twist to your coffee experience.

ENDSWELL BEER & LATER PIZZA

From the owner of Bent Taco, Later Pizza has returned to Collingwood and is shaking up the local dining scene with its Brooklyn-style thin crust pizza. Located in a new space in collaboration with Endswell Beer, this gem promises top-notch pies and brews. Endswell Beer makes their long-anticipated debut to the craft beer scene in Collingwood with fresh, small-batch rotating selections that are now available to enjoy in their cozy taproom or as take-homes.

GORDON'S MARKET & CAFÉ

Operated by Collingwood locals Leslie and Jeff, this independent grocer and café is a true community gem. Offering high-quality, locally sourced products, Gordon's Market & Café is perfect for checking items off your weekly grocery list or enjoying a delicious salad, sandwich, or smoothie in a cozy café setting.

M.E.K. BREAKFAST HOUSE

For a taste of classic breakfast and lunch with a Greek twist, M.E.K. (Morning, Eggs and Koffee) Breakfast House is your new favourite spot. This sister restaurant to Fig & Feta is located in the heart of Collingwood's downtown, and features an exciting seasonal menu.

These new additions are just a taste of what South Georgian Bay has to offer.

MAKE SURE TO CHECK THEM OUT
AND SUPPORT THE

GROWING LOCAL SCENE.